

AETNA Completes Acquisition of ActiveHealth Management

HARTFORD, CONN., MAY 27, 2005 —

Aetna (NYSE: AET) today announced that it has completed its acquisition of ActiveHealth Management, a clinically-focused, technology-driven health management and health care data analytics company, headquartered in New York, N.Y. Aetna announced on May 13 its agreement to acquire ActiveHealth for approximately $400 million. The transaction was financed from available cash.

"This acquisition is further evidence that we are committed to strengthen Aetna's strategic focus on innovation, information and integration," said Ronald A. Williams, president. "Aetna intends to operate ActiveHealth as a branded, standalone business, and to maintain its high standards of service and innovation in serving its broad range of customers." Through the use of its patented Care Engine® System, ActiveHealth provides vital evidence-based medical management and data analytics products and services to a broad range of customers, including health plans, employers, public agencies under state government-funded Medicaid programs, federal government-funded Medicare programs and others.
